DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the N. Y. World.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

If a back woodsman should insist on using an axe to cut his crop of grain, instead of a sickle, because the axe had rendered good service in felling the forest that stood upon the same ground the preceding year, nobody would be apt to think well of his judgment in the selection of a utensil. As we are not to have a war, there is less fitness in the selection of a general, than of a statesman, as a candidate for President. General Grant has been nominated solely in consequence of his military reputation. Waiving, for the present, the fundamental objection that the instrument is not adapted to the proposed use, and that the Presidency, during the next term, will afford no scope for the exertion of military talents, we challenge inquiry into the grounds of General Grant's fame as a soldier. We suppose none of his friends will seriously maintain that he is entitled to be called a great general merely because he has commanded great armies, much less because he has exposed and lost in battle great multitudes of men. His reputation rests upon the fact that all his campaigns have been successful. But success against such adversaries as Pillow or Pemberton in the West is no very signal proof of abilities, unless they commanded greater forces; which they did not. General Lee was a more worthy antagonist; but General Lee was not conquered by fighting him, but by exhausting his resources. He stood on the defensive for nearly a year after Grant assumed command in the East, although the Confederacy was even then, when Grant crossed the Rapidan, tottering and well-nigh spent by three years' exertion in a strenuous and unequal struggle. It is certainly just to credit Grant with the capture of Lee; but there is a debit as well as a credit side to the account. What General Scott called "the economy of life by means of head-work," will be sought for in vain in the campaigns of General Grant. His successes have been won by a prodigal expenditure of his soldiers. In his last and greatest campaign he pitted an enormous army against a small one, and sacrificed twice as many men as General Lee had under his command. It is not justice but adulation, to praise him as if he had conquered an army as large as his own. It is not justice but an affront to humanity to give him as much credit as if he had achieved the same result without such wholesale sacrifice of men. The following is an authentic statement of the respected forces and losses of Generals Grant and Lee between the Rapidan and the James:

Grant, on assuming command May 4, 1864, had of effective men besides the reserve, when he crossed the Rapidan, 125,000.

Lee, at the same date, had an effective force of 52,000.

Grant's reinforcements, up to the battle of Cold Harbor, June 3, were 97,000.

Lee's reinforcements, up to the same date, were 18,000.

Grant's total force, including reinforcements, was 222,000.

Lee's total force, including reinforcements, was 70,000.

Returns to their respective Governments showed that when both armies had reached the James, June 10, the number of Grant's army that had been put hors du combat was 117,000.

Up to the same date, the number of Lee's men who had been put hors du combat was 19,000.

The two armies then met in front of Petersburg.

We have been at some pains to ascertain and verify these figures, and we vouch for their substantial accuracy. We shall take good care that they do not escape the notice, nor slip the recollection of the country. We cheerfully concede to General Grant the merit of success; but it is right that the country should know the terrible cost at which that success was purchased.

The truest test of military genius is the accomplishment of great results with slender means. We can recall no instance (unless Grant be an instance) of a general who established his title to be called great, otherwise than by succeeding against great disadvantages—either superior numbers, or consummate abilities in the commanders opposed to him, or formidable physical obstacles. A man does not prove that he possesses a giant's strength by over-mastering an invalid or a cripple. A general does not establish his title to be considered great by subduing an army one-third as large as his own, and losing five of his own men for every one that he disables of the enemy.

We have had some experience before of running successful Generals as candidates for the Presidency; but their achievements were, in this particular, a great contrast to those of General Grant. General Jackson won his brilliant victory at New Orleans with 7,000 men against a British army of 12,000. General Taylor had but about 6,000 men at Buena Vista, and the Mexicans twice or thrice that number. General Scott had 8,500 at Gerro Gordo, the Mexicans 12,000. The splendid victory of Contreras was achieved by Scott with 4,500, against 12,000 Mexicans. General Scott, in his report to the Secretary of War, speaking of the battle in front of Mexico, said, "And I assert, upon accumulated and unquestionable evidence, that in not one of those conflicts was this army opposed by fewer than three and a half times its numbers—in several of them, by a yet greater excess." It it be said that Grant had disadvantages of ground and position to encounter in advancing through an enemy's country, the same is equally true of Scott, who nevertheless with greatly inferior numbers advanced rapidly from triumph to triumph, while Grant, operating with superior numbers against a nearly exhausted foe, required a whole year to capture Richmond, which finally succumbed to exhaustion rather than to military genius.

From the Richmond Whig.

THE BACK TRACK.

The Republican party seems to be taking the back track. It wanted Wade, but was forced to take Grant; it wanted an extreme platform, brimful of brimstone and negroism, but was forced to content itself with a milk-and-water thing that has not the words negro, colored man, freedman, or confiscation or conquest in it. It merely hints at the negro where it speaks of "Loyal men at the South." They get into power by trickery, then attempted violence, and that failing, they resort again to trickery and evasion. This means something, and the only thing it can mean is—fear. They see they have gone too far. They followed Stevens and Sumner, and Wendell Phillips, until they found themselves just on the verge of ruin. Affrighted by the result of impeachment, and by the numerous evidences of their loss of public confidence, they have called a halt.

Will Stevens, who would rather "rule in hell than serve in Heaven," and Sumner, who fears nothing so much as a reconstruction that will send any Southern white man to Congress, and those Radicals they control, be content with the tame course that it is found necessary to pursue? They have been snubbed and thrown off before, but, by persevering, have managed to bring Congress up to their mark. May they not do it again? Will they not at last try? Like the old Cameronians of Scotland, their policy is expressed in that word used by Sumner to Stanton—'Stick." We hope they will not abandon it. A regiment of such men as Stevens and Sumner (not, however, as soldiers) would do more to break up the Radical party and save the country than a host of timid, halting, time serving moderate men.—Rich. Whig.

Benjamin F. Rice, one of the bogus Arkansas United States Senators elect, has had a document resurrected against him which does not place the morals of this carpet-bag statesman much above the level of the Hon. S. C. Pomeroy. This document is in the shape of a letter and as follows:

IRVINE, December 23, 1859.

DEAR SIR:—I received your letter inquiring if I was dead or run away. I am neither. I settled all your business in Tennessee and got the money, and intended to be at your court and pay it, but before the time arrived I got on a spree and gambled o'Tover $5,000; and hence cannot send you the money at this time, but will make every effort to raise it as soon as possible.

Yours, &c.,

BEN. F. RICE.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,

ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officials who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian of candor and ability, to whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

THE RECONSTRUCTION.

The tardiness of Congress to remove the disabilities of those who have been recommended as "trooly loil," by the Radicals, as well as to approve the new Constitutions, and admit to representation those Southern States, which have complied with the Reconstruction Acts, produces anything but satisfaction with those among the Southern "loyalists" who have been greedy e mmorants for office.

It is impossible for us to say what Congress will do in the matter, but we have not doubted its readiness to gratify the hungry expectants in a reasonable time. Whether the new Constitutions, with their many objectionable features, and the applicants for pardon, with their inconsistent records, can obtain a two thirds majority over the Presidential veto, which may very naturally be expected from Mr. Johnson, seems to admit of doubt, and is probably one of the sources of uneasiness among the office seekers in this State. As we have heretofore said, we do not envy one of them the offices to which they claim to have been elected. While we believe the true interests of civil liberty, and the future peace and prosperity of the South and of the whole country, would be promoted by the utter annihilation of the whole scheme of Congressional reconstruction, provided the States in the South were restored to representation strictly in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, yet we are free to say that the incertitude and consequent derangement of the public mind are so oppressive and discouraging to the public, as well as private, interests of the country, that almost any condition which promises certainty and stability, provided it could be accompanied by ordinary virtue, intelligence and patriotism, on the part of the administrators of the government, would be preferable to continued uncertainty and apprehension.

The new regime will probably be discussed in Congress, for several days to come, but we do not doubt that that body will accept the Constitutions, remove the disabilities of the Radical applicants and restore the State to representation on the Radical programme, so as to enable the Southern States to participate in the next Presidential election. Anything short of this, it is evident, must cut off the last hope of success in the Radical party, at the next election, and this will be an ample cause with the party to do just anything to effect that object, however infamous, unjust or afflicting to the true people of the South.

THE ACQUITTAL OF THE PRESIDENT, &c.—The acquittal of the President, the final adjournment of the impeachment court, and the resignation of Secretary Stanton, seem to give great relief to the business men of the country of all parties. The New York Journal of Commerce, a leading commercial journal, remarks:

"We congratulate the country upon the result. The removal by impeachment of any President, unless he was admitted to be a criminal by impartial men of all parties, would be a precedent most dangerous to our institutions, and we think both the friends and foes of Mr. Johnson will ere long see the wisdom of this decision."

The Herald considers the final vote on impeachment as a defeat of the extremists in the republican party.

The New York Tribune (rad.) says it is a tainted verdict, and was procured by the use of money.

The World says "by the defeat of impeachment we have been saved from entering the road to Mexican anarchy," and acknowledges that the defeat is due to the manly course of Chief Justice Chase.

The New York Times (rep.) thinks that the people will be gratified at the conclusion of the impeachment trial, and hopes that Congress will now proceed to business.

We have various other extracts of a similar character before us, but want of space compels us to omit them. They all generally concur in expressing satisfaction that the whole subject of impeachment has been dropped.

TENNESSEE.—The unhappy condition of Tennessee is the subject of remark by all persons who pass through that unfortunate State. Particular instances of suffering, and of the exercise of despotic power on the part of the officiary and of Brownlow's pet negro militia, may be frequently magnified, yet there can be no doubt that the general condition and feelings of the people are truly perplexing and disagreeable. And yet Tennessee has been "reconstructed" sufficiently long to test the character and the benefits of Radical rule. We do not envy the heart of any man, who desires a similar state of things in North Carolina, or even an approach to it.

SCREWS LOOSE.—The Radicals are somewhat disturbed by the statement that one of the Arkansas Senators has gone over to the Democrats; and they are still more concerned about the state of parties in the Georgia Legislature, in which, it is said, on the authority of the Macon Telegraph, the Democrats have a majority on joint ballot of seven. There is a tie in the Senate—22 Democrats and 22 negroes and white Radicals—while the House stands: Democrats, 85; Radicals and blacks, 78.

IT IS ALL FOR WHISKEY.—It is now pretty generally understood, says the Richmond Dispatch, that Woolley is indeed the representative of a New York whiskey ring, and that a full confession by him would expose much corruption in that line; a very different affair from impeachment. We predict that after a little show of zeal to detect corruption by the very corrupt men who have the matter in hand, they will let Woolley go. The reputation of Congress is too deeply involved to carry that affair any further.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

While the newspapers of the State and of the South ordinarily teem, at this season of the year, with accounts of the closing exercises of our Male Colleges, Academies and Schools, it is a matter of regret that only a secondary consequence should have been bestowed on those for the education of the daughters of the land. Full as much of the virtue of society, the healthfulness and conservatism of public sentiment,—aye, and the character of our political institutions,—depends upon the intellectual cultivation and judicious mental and moral training of the female, as upon those of the male, youth of the country.

The recent Commencement exercises of the large and flourishing Female College, in the intelligent and refined village of Louisburg, under the auspices of that excellent scholar and learned Divine, the Rev. T. M. Jones, evidenced, in a most pleasing degree, the progress which has been made, in this State, in the cause of female education. Such exhibitions—and we would fain hope that they are numerous in the South,—are full of hopeful augury, notwithstanding the many discouragements of the times. We shall experience great gratification in according them, wherever they may occur, that prominence of mention to which they are so justly entitled.

The exercises were inaugurated, on Tuesday evening of last week, by an able and instructive sermon, on the value of the Bible, from the Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, of Chapel Hill. The imposing theme was handled in an eloquent and impressive manner, and the discourse was listened to with profound attention.

On Wednesday morning, the annual Literary address before the young ladies of the College was delivered by Seaton Gales, Esq., before a very large and intelligent audience of both sexes, which completely filled the spacious and handsome Chapel of the Institution. The address was devoted to an exposition of the true mission of woman and a discussion of the theory of her alleged intellectual inferiority.

On Wednesday evening, the Chapel was again crowded with one of the most brilliant audiences it has ever been our good fortune to witness,—the occasion being a Concert of vocal and instrumental music by the young ladies and their instructors; the whole under the supervision and direction of Prof. Hahr, of the Institution. The entire programme was of the highest order, presenting a pleasing variety of the most skilful operatic renditions and simple melodies, and was almost faultlessly executed.—Few audiences were ever more gratified.—We do not wish to discriminate, of course, where all did well; but, if discrimination were admissible, we should designate, as particularly excellent, the Song and Chorus—"Beautiful Isle of the Sea;" Mephisto Galop, Aurora Waltzes and Overture Masaniello, (each, three Pianos, six performers, accompanied by Prof. Hahr on the violin.) This gentleman is perfect master of his delightful Profession, in all its departments, and is aided by highly cultivated lady assistants. He was, though born in a foreign land, a gallant officer of the Confederate army, and shared its fortunes from Bethel throughout.

On Thursday the exercises by the Graduating Class took place. We present below the programme, with the names of graduates:

DEGREES CONFERRED.

BENEDICTION.

The essays of the young ladies evinced very decided talent, cultivated taste and admirable scholarship, and were read with fine emphasis and expression. Here again we may not discriminate, but we may say that President Jones and his Faculty have reason to be proud of their graduating class. These young ladies go out into society, admirably qualified to adorn and bless it and to fill spheres of eminent usefulness. The imprimatur of Louisburg Female College, in their case, will pass current anywhere.

The address of Mr. Jones, to his graduates and to the public, which succeeded these exercises, was one of the finest productions to which we have ever listened. Scholarly in taste, affectionate in exhortation, and earnest in its argument for an elevated standard of female attainments, it would do great good, in the cause of education, if published, and we should be glad to see it in print.

Thus closed this interesting literary festival. It was highly gratifying to witness the interest manifested by the people of Louisburg, and all the adjacent country, in the prosperity of the Institution, in the exercises of the occasion, and in behalf of education. It was literally a gala season, much of business was suspended, and visitors of both sexes were present from distances of many miles. It is well that some such agreeable diversion now and then presents itself to withdraw the thoughts of the people from actual or impending troubles.

The hospitality of Louisburg is proverbial, but it was never, perhaps, more liberally dispensed than on this occasion. The writer of this can never forget the refined and whole souled courtesies of which he was the grateful recipient.

STATE SUMMARY.

We are gratified to learn, from the Goldsboro' Rough Notes, that Mr. J. A. Devane, formerly of Wilmington, and who has been confined in Fort Macon, for some three months, (he having been sentenced to serve a term of three years by a so-called Commission,) has just been released.

The Rough Notes says:

"We learn from Mr. Devane, that, at present, there are about 120 prisoners undergoing sentence at Fort Macon; 13 of whom are white cit zens, the remainder being negroes, soldiers of all nationalities. Mr. D. speaks of the treatment received at the hands of the officers, as being as good as could be expected, and says all credit is due to Capt. Gaskill, the Commanding officer, for his kindness toward civilian prisoners; in fact all the officers, with only one exception, seem to be well disposed.

Mr. Devane represents the civilian prisoners, who are all ex Confederate soldiers, as being in good health; especially Capt. Tolar is fast improving. Captain Tolar had formerly been confined in a dark, damp dungeon, which injured his health considerably, but, upon the recommendation of the Doctor, he has received better quarters, which will, no doubt, be highly gratifying to his many friends and relatives."

A correspondent, writing us from Catawba, says that "White Sulphur Springs," in that county, is equal to Hallsville or Crabtree. It gave 113 votes against the Black Crook Constitution and none for it. No wonder that it is a health-dispensing place.

A correspondent, writing us from Bladen, says: "The prospect is dull, extremely dull, for crops in this section. I am to-day ploughing up land that I have twice planted in corn this year. I have heard of several of my neighbors doing the same.—We have had too much cold weather for corn to grow, and while it is young, it is killed by insects. Truly North Carolina is terribly afflicted."

Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, Editor of the Indicator and Pastor of the Baptist Church in Warrenton, has received a call to Memphis, Tennessee. He preached his valedictory sermon on yesterday, and, in the last issue of his paper, takes a feeling farewell of his readers. Mr. Kingsbury is a unsurn scholar and gentleman, and we part from him with regret. Happiness attend him and his family in their new home!

The examination of the pupils of Warrenton Female College takes place on Wednesday and Thursday next.

The closing exercises of Henderson Collegiate Institute will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 9th. and 10th. inst. The Index speaks in high terms of the indefatigable zeal and energy displayed by the excellent Principal, F. A. Fetter, Esq.

The execution of Reuben Wright, who, together with a colored female accomplice, was tried and convicted of murder, at the Fall term of Stokes Superior Court, took place near Danbury, on Thursday of last week. Upwards of two thousand persons were present at the execution. This is one of the few instances in which an execution has taken place on Thursday. Friday, almost universally, is hangman's day.

Gen. Stubbs, President of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad, has called the annual meeting of the Stockholders. The Southerner expresses its gratification that, after such a long interval of time, another attempt is about to be made towards the accomplishment of this important work.

At Edgecombe County Court, last week, two negroes, regarded as among the most intelligent of their race in the county, endeavored earnestly to escape Jury duty, on the ground that they did not consider themselves competent to act as Jurors. They made oath to that effect. The circumstance reflects great credit upon their good sense.

George Washington, negro, only 17 years old, was hung in Kinston, on Friday. He was convicted of arson at the last term of Lenoir Superior Court. He was callous, indifferent and unrepentant to the last.

The Petersburg Express, in noticing the contents of the "Land We Love," says:

"We will be pardoned for inviting special attention to the opening article. It contains a merited tribute to the memory of one who, like the chivalric Bayard, was pre-eminently a man sans peur et sans reproche. Junius Daniel lacked few, if any, of the elements of perfect manhood. The shaft which consigned his manly frame to the dust, could not have deprived North Carolina of a son more worthy of her pride."

True,—most true,—every word of it.—When North Carolina makes up her setting of jewels, none will shine in it with more conspicuous lustre than this lamented and noble son of hers. He was as conscientious as he was fearless,—as patriotic as he was brave and honorable.

We acknowledge the receipt of the last Quarterly issue of the "Carrier Dove, of Mecklenburg Female College Magazine." In typography it is beautiful, and its contents reflect credit upon the taste and ability of its fair editresses. It is published at the cheap rate of only $1 per annum, and surely every friend of polite education can afford to encourage this commendable and improving enterprise. Address Rev. A. J. Bisey, President of the Institution, Charlotte, N. C.

Directions for Getting Staves.

NORFOLK, May 27, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—We give below the Inspection Law of the State of Virginia, which applies to our market.

White Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3½ feet long, all heart, 3 inches wide, ½ inches thick on the thin edge, shaved smooth straight on sides and edges, clear of knots, worm holes, and wind shakes.

Red Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3 inches wide, if all heart, and 3½ inches wide if part sap—same length and thickness, and same requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Pipe Staves must be 4½ feet long, all heart, same width, thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Hogshead Heading must be 5 inches wide, all heart, one-third each 28, 30 and 32 inches long, same thickness and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Barrel Staves must be 32 inches long, 3 inches wide, all heart, same thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

Red Oak Hhhd. Staves, if gotten 44 inches long, 4 inches wide, and 1 inch thick, will command a better price than the ordinary dimensions, and are in more demand.

We would advise that all Staves and Heading should be gotten a little over the dimensions required by law, to allow for shrinkage.

It takes 1,200 pieces to make a thousand Staves and Heading.

Staves and Heading of good quality always command remunerative prices in our market, and are nearly always in demand.

Having been engaged in selling Staves for eighteen years, we are perfectly conversant with the business, and flatter ourselves that we can and do always obtain the very highest prices.

Strict attention will be given to any consignments entrusted to our care, and prompt returns made. Any further information will be given on application, with pleasure.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the Ætna, in 1865, saved $10 41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7 17, and in 1867, $4 90. The receipts of the Ætna were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $,'29,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $877,919-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287,64, making a grand total of $797,207 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon. Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Special attention is directed to the new announcement, by W. H. Crow, Esq., Manager and General Agent, of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. It presents, in a striking light, the operations and benefits of that great Company, and cannot fail to impress the public. Read it.

Commencement of Kittrell's Springs Female College: Rev. C. B. Riddick, President. The Commencement will take place on the first day of July, and a highly interesting programme is presented. The occasion will doubtless be a most pleasing one. We are glad to see that this excellent institution is in so flourishing a condition.

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Hillsboro' Coal Mining and Transportation Company will be held in New York, on the first Tuesday in July.

The Cedar Falls Manufacturing Co., at Cedar Falls, Randolph Co., is prepared to furnish, cheaply and at short notice, all kinds of Bobbins, Spools, &c., for Cotton or Woolen Machinery.

The second term of the session of 1868 of the North Carolina Military and Polytechnic Academy, at Hillsboro', of which that accomplished scholar and gallant gentleman, Gen. R. E. Colston, is Superintendent, will begin on the 1st. of July. We hope to be able to announce a resumption of exercises under circumstances of prosperity equal to the merits of the Institution.

See the announcement of Henry Mahler, Jeweller, Manufacturer of Gold and Silver Ware, &c., Fayetteville Street. The cut gives a good idea of the exterior of his gem establishment. But "for particulars, enquire within," and you will be pleased every way.

Sparkling Catawba Springs: J. Golden Wyatt, Proprietor. The season at this glorious watering place commences to-day.

THE ANNIVERSARY Festival and Exhibition of the Raleigh Baptist Sabbath School, on Friday night last, was a perfect success. Tucker Hall was filled, to its utmost capacity, with an elite and appreciative audience. The spectacular display of the tastily dressed pupils on the stage was especially pleasing, while the role of each of the juvenile performers was well acted and the text properly recited.

The large crowd evinced their satisfaction by frequent applause. The mothers and fathers present enjoyed, no doubt, the proficiency displayed by their children, and, as it is fair to presume that the young folks were highly pleased, as in all such cases made and provided.

"Every laddie had his lassie,"

Too much credit cannot be accorded Mr. Palmer, and his corps of able assistants, for their efforts in behalf of the children of the school. Peculiarly adapted for their stations, the proficiency of the pupils shows that the duty of these officers has been well performed.

THE SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS.—The announcement of the opening of this celebrated watering-place will be found in our advertising columns, to-day. Mr. Wyatt, the energetic Proprietor, has gone to great expense in adding to its comforts and attractiveness, and it is now the equal, in all respects, of the most favored establishments of the kind in the country. Our readers will remember the glowing descriptions given of these Springs, last summer, by our charming correspondent "P. D."—We are sure that while she did them ample justice, as she does every subject that her brilliant pen touches, she did not exaggerate the charms of this delightful spot.

RALEIGH AND GASTON RAILROAD.—Having recently travelled over a portion of this road, we can bear testimony to the continued excellence of its management. The trains make excellent time, the cars are comfortable and clean, and the officials polite and attentive. It is worth while to take a jaunt down the Road, with Timberlake in charge. He was our "Captain," and we know whereof we speak. Indeed, all the Conductors are what they should be.

THE HUNGRY BIRDS.—Not a day passes that doesn't bring to our city some one or more of the poor hungry expectants of office. Of late, since the rather curious performances of the Congressional Radicals, their visits are becoming more frequent. Some come to know what it all means, and to ascertain, if possible, when they will be permitted to realize the promised joys of office. Poor fellows! they look care-worn and jaded. Let them possess their souls in patience. Doubtless they will get their crumbs after awhile.

Telegrams

Supposed to have fallen into the hands of Butler's Smelling Committee.

X. P. G. TO SENATOR DRAKE.

Pray, Mr. Drake, do let us in,
The civil are awful sore;
'Tis true we all have done much sin,
But, then, we'll sin no more.
And though we all have "eaten fire"
Until our "inwards" hurt,
We surely have appeased your ire
By eating piles of dirt!
A Drake, who gargles in the mud,
And does it, too, from choice
May think this penitence not good:—
But the united voice
Of every penitential sash,
The good old State within,
Appeals to you, imperiously,
To "let the hungry in!"

SENATOR DRAKE TO X. P. G.

Your telegram to-day rece. v'd—
We do (or care a d—
Your promises, as now believed,
Are nothing but a sham.
You forcibly went out and now
Would forcibly come in;
Just "watch and stand," we'll show you how
We punish such a sin.
Your "Beseech" is so bedash-bued,
The Senate's in a fix;
Could wish avail, your cussed crew'd
Be sunk within the Styx:
Had I control, for seven months
Should fiercest hunger gnaw—
Without relief, except in dirt—
Upon your greedy maw.
'Tis true, your diet's been quite rough
Since first your crime was outed;
But, then, you all can Holden-ough
Without a pounch discouted.
A year or so will not be late
To re-admit the "far-west State"—
So quiet keep;—at any rate,
I think, you might some comfort take
From that old motto—"Aisle and Wait."

THE SUPREME COURT.—The Summer Term will commence on Monday 8th. inst. The first day will be devoted to applicants for license. Then the first, fifth and second circuits will be called. On the 18th, the fourth, sixth and seventh circuits. On the 28th, the eighth and third circuits.

The Judges cannot answer the numerous letters received from applicants, until they meet to confer; but the Clerk takes the liberty of suggesting that all applicants should attend on the first day of the term.

Newspapers in the State will confer a favor upon many of their readers by noticing this alteration of the former rules.

DECORATING THE GRAVES.—In compliance with the direction of the General of the "Grand Army of the Republic," the graves of Federal soldiers, in the Cemetery near this city, were decorated on Saturday. A lengthy procession, consisting mainly of colored persons, accompanied by a band of music, was formed, about 2 o'clock, P. M., in front of the Capitol, and marched thence to the Cemetery, where, we learn, the exercises prescribed in the programme heretofore published, were accomplished.

"DARKEY IN THE BREAD TRAY."—The streets were the scene of an exciting chase on Saturday. A negro was caught in the act of abstracting provisions from one of the country-carts on Market-square, and, as soon as detected, made off at a rapid ran. He was pursued by several persons and the race soon became "fast and furious." The darkey, to whom fear lent wings, would probably have escaped, had he not been headed off by a Federal Sergeant, who thus enabled the pursuers to come up with the delinquent. He was arrested and committed to jail—where he remains, a warning to hungry darkeys not to appropriate what don't belong to them.

FEDERAL COURT.—This tribunal meets in this city, to day. We presume that there will be a large number of professional gentlemen in attendance from all parts of the State, during its Term.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, May 28, 1868.

The indications are that the Southern States will not be admitted until after the Presidential election, because they have not, by their Legislatures, ratified the constitutional amendment. That is the position of Senator Drake, and he represents the majority in the Senate, and in all probability speaks after full consultation with the ultra "Rads" on the subject. It will be apt to produce serious complications in the party.

BETS ON IMPEACHMENT.—The parties who have made bets on the result of impeachment are in warm contention, the adjournment of the court without voting upon all the articles having rendered it uncertain whether any money has been lost or any money won on the trial. Some of the bets were that Fessenden and Trumbull would vote "to acquit on every article," and others that the President would be acquitted on "every article." Those who bet against acquittal in these cases contend that as the Senators named have not voted on "every article," it is a drawn bet, and as the President has not been acquitted on "every article," each party must have his stakes returned. Those, however, who bet on the square issue of "acquittal" or "conviction" are paying their bets, there being no loop-hole for escape.—Wash. Cor. New York Herald.

EXPECTED CABINET RESIGNATIONS.—Postmaster General Randall, it is said, will, in the course of a few days, tender his resignation to the President, but not on account of any disagreement between the President and himself. It has been the desire of Gov. Randall to retire from the Cabinet for some time past, but he would not do so while the impeachment trial was in progress, as he did not want it to appear that he was forsaking the President.

It is currently reported also that Secretary Seward will soon tender his resignation to the President, as he for some time past has desired to retire from the Cabinet, but would not do so for the same reasons that influenced Gov. Randall.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

A female operator in Wall street, N. Y., has cleared $50,000 within the past twelve months. A New York correspondent says: "She is thoroughly informed on questions of finance, knows all the shifts and turns of the market, and understands all the tricks of the trade. Men often consult her upon future operations, and take her opinon in matters in which they cannot trust their own."

An interesting scientific discovery is mentioned in one of the Paris journals. The Calabar bean is found to be an antidote to strychnia. The latter destroys by spasmodic contraction. The first taken alone paralyzes, and thus directly neutralizes the action of strychnia, if given after that poison. The bean has been found useful in cases of lockjaw.

Two swells, whose respective parents rose to affluence, the one by making bricks and the other by boot making, met in a bar room. Said the son of Crispin impertinently to the son of Bricks, "Suppose we moisten our clay." "By all means," replied the other, "provided there are no heel-taps."

From the Baltimore Gazette's Correspondence.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

The extraordinary and oppressive action of the House of Representatives in the case of Col. C. W. Woolley is the theme of general comment here to day, and it is universally regarded as the most alarming evidence yet furnished of the strides of the Radical party towards despotism. A citizen of Ohio comes to the National Capital, and while here has occasion to use $20,000, more or less. A summons is issued for him to appear before a committee of Congress and disclose his private transactions, whatever they may be. He claims the protection of the Federal constitution, which guards him against precisely such an outrage, but his claim is ignored, and Colonel Woolley is thrown into prison. Yes, imprisoned within the walls of the nation's Capitol, from the dome of which the Goddess of Liberty looks down in mockery. If this power be recognized, what citizen is safe in visiting Washington? * * * *

A leading Radical Senator from New England said to-day that Boutwell's resolution would be worth 100,000 votes to the Democratic ticket. Colonel Woolley is kept in prison in a room adjoining the "Star Chamber," and this morning he was brought in and asked by Butler if he was ready and willing to answer as to the manner in which he had disbursed his money. He replied that he was ready and willing to answer the moment the House of Representatives pronounced the questions proper, but not before. "Back to your prison, sir!" exclaimed the indignant inquisitor, and the guards bore Colonel Woolley back to his room of confinement. What think the American people of this? Foiled in the attempt to remove the President and seize the reins of government, the vengeance of the chagrined and defeated impeachers falls upon the head of a defenceless private citizen, and Butler, with the air of Robespierre, exclaims, "Back to your prison, sir!" As it is understood Col. Woolley will not yield the principle for which he is contending under the Constitution, unless directed so to do by an order of the House of Representatives, the probabilities are that he will spend the summer in the American "Bastile." He bore himself handsomely yesterday through the trying ordeal in the House and the crowded galleries, and his friends say he can never be terrified by Boutwell or bullied by Butler into a compliance with their demands.

PROPOSED ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—There is a disposition on the part of a large number of members of Congress to adjourn about the 1st of July, in order that they may actively enter on the Presidential canvass.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

"The man who raised a cabbage-head has done more good than all the metaphysics in the world," said a stump orator at a meeting. "Then," replied a wag, "your mother ought to have the premium."

The Radical editors of Missouri had a meeting at St. Louis on Saturday, and resolved to come out squarely in favor of negro suffrage and negro elevation generally.

Butler says Bingham is a murderer. Bingham says Butler is a coward and a thief.—Donnelly says Washburne is a scoundrel and a fool. Washburne says Donnelly is a convict and a liar.

It is stated that Mr. Stanton is deeply enraged by the failure of the Chicago Convention to endorse him.

Gov. Wood, of Quincy, Illinois, placed a flag at half-mast over his house on learning by telegraph how Senator Trumbull had voted.

Many assert that Hancock and Adams will be the Fourth of July Democratic ticket.

Hon. Clement C. Clay, being in delicate health, is making a tour through Tennessee on horseback.

Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, was a peaceable General, but is a fighting member of Congress.—Prentice.

Numerously signed petitions requesting Senator Trumbull to resign are in circulation in Illinois.

A bill has been introduced into Congress by a Radical for the reorganization of the United States colored troops. What for?

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—CONGRESS AND OTHER MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, May 30, P. M.

SENATE.—After important business and Executive session, the Arkansas admission bill was resumed.

Wilson said that he would never consent to adjournment till the Southern States were admitted.

Frelinghuysen maintained that Congress could not impose conditions, nor could a State withdraw its assent to the Howard amendment. He contended that the fourteenth article was already adopted.

Williams took the same view.

Doolittle characterized the Arkansas Constitution as anti-Christian and anti-Republican.

Trumbull did not believe in the fundamental conditions, but would vote for them, to save the bill.

Perry's amendment, striking out the conditions, was lost—20 to 20.

Several motions to adjourn failed, until Drake commenced with a written speech.

Edmunds' amendment, reported on yesterday, was defeated without a division.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Butler offered a resolution, forbidding any written communications reaching Woolley, until the Speaker opened and read them.

The Speaker declined opening any sealed letters or telegrams, even if ordered by the House. (A hard lick on the Beast.)

Baine maintained that it would be subversive to the honor of the Speakership, to make a Jailor of the Speaker.

It was finally ordered that Woolley's communications reach him through the Sergeant-at-Arms, but the family Counsel and Physician will be allowed free access for private interviews.

Indian appropriations was resumed and adjourned.

Extension of the Bankrupt Bill is not probable.

The workmen are placing additional securities to the doors and windows of the Capitol prison.

Vinnie Ream is preparing her models for removal.

Revenue for the week $6,715,000.

The following is the telegram which led to resolutions on Woolley's correspondence:

METROPOLITAN HOTEL, N. Y.

C. W. Woolley, Washington, D. C.

Citizen and sovereign, imprisoned by the order of tyrants and cowards in the Capitol of America, stand firm! Every true man in the land, with blood in his veins, will stand by you. It is the last feather that breaks the camels back.

GEO. O. JONES.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, May 30, P. M.

Seven thousand graves of Union Soldiers, at the National Cemetery near this city, were decorated to-day. The blacks turned out in large numbers with flowers.

General Schofield will return in a few days, to turn over his department to his successor.

FROM GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, May 30, P. M.

The citizens that were arrested in Hamburg, and carried to Aiken, have been released, on the promise of giving bail for their appearance, when their trial takes place.

John J. Clayton, an old merchant, committed suicide, last night, by firing the contents of a shot gun into his breast.

The accounts from Southwest Georgia represent the negroes as working well. One third less cotton is planted than last year. The plant is looking vigorous and healthy.

GEN. CANBY AND THE NEGRO ALDERMEN.

CHARLESTON, May 30, P. G.

The Charleston News asserts that General Canby has appointed the negro aldermen, because the people did not pay him social respect—his motive being to punish and humiliate them for their ostracism.

A HOPEFUL SIGN.—Whilst the Arkansas bill was under discussion in the Senate on Wednesday, and apropos of the proviso to it stipulating that negroes shall never be deprived of the right to vote, Mr. Morton made some forcible remarks against the power to impose a fundamental condition on a State, except by consent of the people, and argued that no such condition could deprive a State of the right it had under the Constitution to regulate suffrage and to amend its Constitution at pleasure. Mr. Perry expressed himself emphatically to the same effect, and said the stipulation in the House bill would be void. Both are Radical.—Rich. Dispatch.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1868.

MY LOVE AND I.

[Written by "Ann Harris," while a Prisoner on Johnston's Island.]

My love reposes upon a rosewood frame—
A bunk have I;
A couch of feathery down fills up the same—
Mine's straw, but dry;
She sinks to sleep at night with scarce a sigh;
With waking eyes I watch the hours creep by.

My love her daily dinner takes in state,
And so don't I;
The richest viands flank her plate—
Coarse grub have I.
Pure wine she sips, with ease her thirst to slake;
I pump my drink from Erie's limpid lake.

My love has all the world at will to roam—
Three acres have I;
She goes abroad, or quiet sits at home—
So cannot I.
Bright angels watch around her couch at night;
A Yank with loaded gun keeps me in sight.

A thousand weary miles now stretch between
My love and I;
To her this wintry night, cold, calm, serene,
I waft a sigh;
And hope, with all my earnestness of soul,
To-morrow's mail will bring me by parole.

There's hope ahead; we'll meet again—
My love and I;
We'll wipe away all tears of sorrow then—
Her love lit eye
Will all my weary troubles then beguile,
And keep this wayward Reb. from Johnson's Isle.

A GREAT CURIOSITY.—The editor of the Griffin Star, after paying a visit to Upson county, gives the following account of a great natural curiosity of Georgia:

"The first grand point of interest was the famous Thundering Springs, located in the Northern part of the county, about twelve miles from Thomaston. We expected to find quite a curiosity, but were completely amazed to find so remarkable a freak of mother nature as this spring. It is located in the wildest part of the mountains exteuding through the county, and there in the solitude of the wilderness presents a most remarkable phenomenon. The dimensions of the spring proper are about five feet in diameter, and of an unknown depth, for experimenters have repeatedly sounded its depth in vain, and no bottom can be reached. The water boils up with great force; bubbles of gas constantly rise up through the water, and explode at the surface. This gas is highly combustible, and is frequently set on fire as it makes its escape. Such is the force with which the water rises that a human body cannot sink, but is buoyed up in a standing position. It is a famous bathing place, and we took the first opportunity to plunge into this bottomless well.—There we could stand upright for hours, with nothing to support us but water. The earth around the spring is a beautiful white sand, of very fine grain, giving away readily at the touch of the foot, but immediately reforming as before. The walls of the well are perfectly symmetrical, as if dug by the hands of man. As low down as we could reach with our foot, we could kick a hole in the wall, and as soon as the foot was removed the wall would immediately reform as before. The temperature is delightful, and the waters are invaluable, especially for diseases of the skin and blood. The spring constantly makes a low, rumbling noise, from which it derives its name."

THE GLORY OF A GOOD LAUGH.—After all, what a capital, honest, jolly, glorious thing a good laugh is! What a tonic!—What an exorciser of evil spirits! What a digester! What a febrifuge! Better than a walk before breakfast or a nap before dinner. How it shuts the mouth of malice and opens the brow of kindness. Whether it discovers the gums of age or infancy, the grinders of folly or pearls of beauty; whether it racks the side or deforms the countenance of vulgarity, or dimples the visage or moistens the eye of refinement—in all its phases, and all faces contorting, relaxing, overwhelming, convulsing, throwing the human countenance into something approximate to "Billy Button's transformation, under every circumstance and every where, a laugh is a glorious thing. Like a "thing of beauty," it is a joy forever. There is no remorse in it. It leaves no sting except in the sides, and that, it goes off! Even a single unparticipated man is a great affair to witness. But it is seldom single. It is more infectious than the scarlet fever. You cannot gravely contemplate a laugh. If there is one laughter, and one witness, there are forthwith two laughters, and so on. What convulsion is propagated like sound! What a thing it is when it becomes an epidemic!

THE ROCKS OF CALVARY.—In Fleming's "Christology," it is stated that an unbeliever, visiting the sacred places of Palestine, was shown the clefts of Mount Calvary. Examining them narrowly and critically, he turned in amazement to his fellow-travellers, and said, "I have long been a student of nature, and I am sure that the rents and clefts in this rock were never done by nature, or an ordinary earthquake; for by such a concussion the rock must have split according to its veins, and where it was weakest in the adhesion of parts; for this," he said, "I have observed to have been done in other rocks when separated or broken after an earthquake; and reason tells me it must always be so. But it is quite otherwise here; for the rocks are split athwart and across the veins, in a strange and preternatural manner, and therefore," said he, "I thank God that I came hither to see the standing monument of miraculous power by which God gives evidence to this day of the divinity of Christ."

STREET SCENE.—The other day, passing along Military Street in front of the Court House, we saw a one-armed ex-Confederate soldier standing by his wagon and team of oxen. All at once the maimed rebel, with the fire of battle not entirely gone from his eye, straightened himself up, assumed the military stiffness of old Gen. Ruggles when calling his courier for a pipe of tobacco, whirled his long whip gradually in the air, and shouted in the hoarse voice of command:

"Attention, battalion!"

Promptly, with the word, the six steers rose from their recumbent attitude, shook their dusty flanks, and took the position of the soldier.

Again the clarion voice:

"Forward—march!" and the trained animals moved off, not with a great deal of time in keeping step, 'tis true, but understanding the command perfectly.

Then, not satisfied with the pace 'at will' of his troops, the incorrigible 'reb' thundered out:

"No enemy in front!"

And the veterans quickened up like the Old Guard at Waterloo preparing for the headlong charge.—Mississippi Index.

'Betsy, get up and get me something to eat.'

'Why, John, there's nothing cooked.'

'Well, get up and cook something.'

'There's nothing to cook.'

'Nothing at all?

'No.'

'Well, get up, and get a clean knife and fork—I'll go through the motions, anyhow.'

STAGE MANAGER.—"John, go see if the ballet are all dressed, for it is time to ring up the curtain." Boy returns: "About ready, sir; get most of their clothes off."

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions are various. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case the assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected, or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value three hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoings as is exempt from seizure or sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by state exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $200, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in the State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, also, to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to cases in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the time which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINING LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 10,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other states and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, generally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of the assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
